LICK-SPITTLE BOSSES

Who Live and Thrive, Impudent and Vigorous.

MERELY A FRACTION OF A MAN

Eager to Do the Offices of a Message Boy, Provided He May Drink the Wine "Me Lud" Has Bathed In—A Born Toady, Parasite and Flunkey.

The following editorial from the Detroit Press, with comments by the Glass and Pottery World, will be read with avidity by the masses of East Liverpool:

"One of the most remarkable features of our political system in this country," says the Detroit Press, "is the helplessness of the people. It is a well known fact that, although the presidential election is commonly called a 'popular election,' and the successful candidate is sometimes called 'the people's choice,' it very rarely happens that the successful candidate has a majority of the votes. It is not to this fact, however, that we are now calling attention. It is to the helplessness of the people before election—in the five days of nominations and caucuses and primaries. In theory the people here are all powerful. Yet in actual practice the people are as helpless as they are powerful in theory. If there is any way of suppressing the 'boss' in politics it has never yet been discovered. The electoral college, which stands today enshrined in our constitution, was a weak device of the simple-minded fathers who made it, to dispense with the boss. But the electoral college is an old, antiquated piece of government furniture which was set aside as a curio about the time it was completed, and there it stands today, a ludicrous evidence of the folly of trying to ignore human nature in making reforms. The idea of the fathers who sat in Independence hall was that the electors, elected for their wisdom and patriotism, would solemnly meet, and, after grave debate, select from the great men of the country those most fit for president and vice president. The people, the rabble, were distrusted and were placed in leading strings which snapped almost before Washington died, and so the electoral college stands in our national museum as interesting as Washington's old breeches, but of little more use.

"The boss is as persistent as the rag weed. He lives and thrives today more impudent and vigorous than ever. His motto is 'L'Andace, L'Andace.' Toujours l'andace. The people despise him, but he smiles on them benignly. The newspapers ridicule and roast him, but he beams on them patronizingly, and they give him all he wants—unlimited advertising. He can stand unlimited abuse, provided he is interviewed whenever and wherever he appears. He takes the people into his confidence with a ludicrous affectation of humility and profundity adroitly mixed, and it is amusing and amazing to read his hints as to how much he could tell but for the real confidences reposed in him and his intense desire to save the country from a fatal mistake. The boss is the valet of 'me lud'—always a lick spittle—a fraction of a man—eager to do the offices of a message boy, provided he may drink the wine 'me lud' has bathed in. To be mistaken for 'me lud' is to him supreme happiness. As 'no one is a hero to his valet,' so the boss knows better than anyone else the exact condition of 'me lud's' bowels. 'Me lud' endures him as the crocodile endures that dirty bird that picks his teeth—because he is necessary and convenient.

"If public interest in the boss flags, forthwith he is interviewed, and the gaping masses are astonished by hints of what astounding things he might tell if the public good did not restrain him. 'An' I could an' I would.' The Sphinx must have been a boss, grinning and smirking for thousands of years over the desert, in an affectation of wisdom cut in stone. No doubt if he could talk as well as sing at the sunrise, he would hint in Coptic that Thutmose would be ruling yet if he had only taken his advice. Wiser than the Sphinx, wiser than the oracle at Delphi, wiser than the seers that inspected with corrugated brows the entrails of dead heifers, is the boss in American politics. But he is necessary—as necessary as a vault cleaner and as odoriferous. As soon as an American merchant gets rich he wants a valet. As soon as an American politician blooms into a candidate for president he wants a boss. Their duties and delights are much the same. It is necessary that each should be a born toady, a parasite, a flunkey. He must fetch and carry, pass on the kicks that come to him from above and cringe and smile to the great man who owns him, and whom in some sense he owns. Great is the boss in American politics.

He is as indispensable as other vermin, for—

"Fleas have other fleas to bite'em. And so on, ad infinitum."

CALLS HIM DOWN.

"Holiness (?) Ward in the Line of a Slanderer.

Holiness (?) Ward, the blatant nuisance and loud-mouthed individual who periodically slanders people, whose shoes he is not fit to wipe, and who should be debarred from his cowardly assaults by the stern hand of the law, made the assertion, immediately after the drowning of Mr. William Kirkham, that the latter was under the influence of liquor when he met his death, and that the people of East Liverpool were his murderers. And now comes Mr. James Pitman, of the Dresden pottery, who states that he loaned deceased a skiff at twenty minutes after six o'clock on the night the latter was drowned, and that there was no sign of him being under the influence of liquor at that time. Mr. John Roberts, insurance agent, met deceased at a later hour that night, between nine and ten o'clock, in the vicinity of Line island, and says Mr. Kirkham was perfectly sober. Mr. Kirkham's son, fourteen years of age, was with his father at the time of his death, and the lad asserts that his parent had not been drinking. James Kirkham, a son of deceased, is employed as a presser at Sebring's pottery. For the past twelve years he has been a member of the Salvation army. He is justly indignant at the base slander against his father, and has sent word to "Holiness (?) Ward by his son, John Ward, that he must make the matter right, and offer a public apology. If the statements of Messrs. Pitman, Roberts and young Kirkham are true, the cowardly slanderer deserves hot condemnation at the hands of all decent and honorable citizens, and he should be compelled to put a lock upon his foul mouth.

DOCTOR HUSTON

Tells His Side of the McLaughlin Suit.

Doctor Huston was interviewed by a reporter this afternoon in regard to the suit brought by McLaughlin for $132, claimed due for professional services. The doctor said: "I have not very much to say on the subject, except that I don't know why he entered suit against me. McLaughlin first sent his bill to the trustees over a year ago, but they refused to allow him anything, and now he enters suit against me. If I owe him anything that is the best way for him to get it."

When asked if he ever paid McLaughlin anything he replied: "Not a cent. I merely called on him to work as I did other members of my congregation. If I owe him anything, then I owe every member of my church something for work done. He was a member in good standing of conference, and it would have been discountenanced in me to have done all the preaching and not to have called on him. I believe he acknowledges $48 on his bill, but he was never paid a cent for anything done, the money was given to him because he was poor."

The doctor further stated that his case was in the hands of Attorney Wells, of Wellsville, and that if he owed McLaughlin anything it would be discovered at the hearing Saturday morning.

SNOW IN JUNE.

A Perceptible Fall Near the Village of Salineville.

Snow in June is an uncommon occurrence in this section of the state, but that a fall of the flakes took place near Salineville is evidenced by M. F. Frank, the shoe merchant. Yesterday afternoon he was returning from Akron, and when near the sleepy village of Salineville a stir was noticed in the car. Passengers were buttoning their coats, while others, through force of habit, were moving toward the stoves. Looking out the window, Mr. Frank saw at a glance the cause of the commotion; the ground was covered by a perceptible fall of snow. Whether the storm had been superinduced by the chilliness of Salineville is not known; but, strange to say, the snow only covered about an area of one mile in that vicinity.

A SONG RECITAL.

Professor Harper and Assistants Will Entertain Tonight.

Professor Harper, assisted by Miss Georgie McClane, soprano; Miss Allie Laughlin, alto; Frank Eckler, tenor; J. L. Swan, bass; Edward McIntosh and chorus, with Miss Clara Chapman at the piano, will give a free song recital at the First U. P. church tonight. The program is a lengthy one, and contains the most brilliant compositions procurable. The entertainment will be divided into two parts, and will rank among the best recitals ever given in the city. The entertainment is free, and all are invited.

LABOR DAY COMMITTEE

Appointed by Trades Council Last Night.

A DISCUSSION ON LABOR UNIONS

An Invitation From the W. C. T. U. Received to Attend a Farewell Meeting to Reverend Whitehead—The Library Committee Also Held a Meeting.

Trades council held an unusually interesting session at their hall in the Whittenberger block last night.

The first business transacted was the appointment of a general committee composed of Messrs. Mumford, Danberg, Hughes, Weisend, Yant, Eardley and Hodge, who will have charge of all arrangements made for the Labor Day celebration, Monday, Sept. 7. The committee will appoint various sub-committees, and it is the intention to make Labor Day this year a much greater success than ever before.

Charles Danberg was elected trustee to fill the vacancy caused by William Ruhe being elected treasurer of the organization.

A lengthy discussion took place on "Labor Unions; How They Should be Organized." Speeches were made on the subject by Messrs. Mumford, Kerr, and a number of others. During the discussion the necessity of all unions having a financial standing was developed, and the speakers, with one accord, favored the assessment plan, of a man paying dues according to the amount of his earnings.

The auditing committee reported the books in first class condition and made several recommendations.

An invitation was received from the Women's Christian Temperance union to Trades council and all members of labor unions to attend a farewell meeting given to Rev. R. B. Whitehead in the Methodist Protestant church Friday evening. A number of the members spoke in the highest terms of praise for the laboring man since he has been in the city, and the council decided by a unanimous vote to accept the invitation and give the entertainment all the assistance within their power.

The library committee met after Trades council had adjourned and heard favorable reports from sub-committees. A nominating committee was selected to visit the business men and working men for the purpose of getting a list of names from which to select a board of directors, consisting of 11 members, the board to be divided equally between business and working men. On Monday week a meeting of all the subscribers to the library fund will be called for the purpose of selecting a board of directors from the names suggested by the nominating committee.

Circulars have been sent out to the leading publishing houses of the country for catalogues from which the volumes to be placed in the library will be selected.

Several minor arrangements were made in regard to fitting up the room in which the library will be situated, and it is expected by next Monday the room will be completed.

The committee expressed themselves as highly gratified by the way the citizens have responded to their appeal for funds, as they have at present a neat sum, and will make the library a success in every particular.

A donation of $5 was received from the street car men's union, and a number of subscriptions have been received by sub-committees, which will be published in a few days.

The library committee will meet again Friday night in the library room.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

House of a Hill Resident Struck Last Night—Damage Small.

During the electrical storm last night, the house owned and occupied by Harvey Thompson and family, on Lincoln avenue, was struck by lightning and slightly damaged. The electric fluid passed down through the roof, tearing off a few shingles, and thence through the house to the ground. All the members of the family were at home when the shock came and were greatly alarmed. Upon investigation it was found that the only damage occasioned was that sustained to the roof.

HIGHWAYMEN.

They Attack Travelers at the Jethro Bridge.

Loading at the Jethro bridge should be suppressed. There is a gang of loafers who congregate at the structure and hold up every pedestrian in that section, asking for money to buy the drinks. On Tuesday they struck the wrong man and a fight ensued, which resulted in several of the loafers being severely bruised. A farmer was attacked yesterday, but escaped by whipping up his horses and going up the road at a rapid gait. A visit from the officers would put a stop to the practice.

TANYARD RUN.

A Prominent Physician's Views on Its Condition.

In conversation with a prominent physician of the city yesterday, that gentleman expressed himself as follows, in regard to the dangerous condition of Tanyard run:

"If the council want to improve the health of the city they should do something toward sewerage Tanyard run. There is not a doubt in my mind but that the people living along the run want it sewered. It is a natural sewer for all the land in Huston's and McKinnon's addition, and could be sewered with but little trouble. From a sanitary point of view, it is absolutely necessary that something should be done with the run, as the time has arrived when it is a source of danger and menace to the health of every person living in that vicinity."

NAME THEM!

Give the Fellows the Send Off They Deserve.

Would-be artists and busybodies were engaged in smart Alec work the other day, using chalk in making inscriptions upon church steps and other places, against the occupants and those in the habit of attending said churches. The inscription directed the passers by to peruse the eighth verse of the 15th chapter of Matthew, which reads as follows: "This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honour-eth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me." This passage might be applicable to numerous church members, and to some residents of East Liverpool, and no doubt is; but it is dollars to doughnuts that the chalk artist is either a whitened sepulcher or a thousand times worse than the people he attempts to castigate.

GRANTED A PATENT.

Will L. Taylor Invented a Lock For Electric Lamp Sockets.

When W. L. Taylor learned that the lads were stealing electric light bulbs from the potteries, and having fun in breaking them, he set to work to prevent the practice. Yesterday he was granted a patent on a device for locking electric lamp sockets, which will effectually put a stop to the habit of the small boy in this city, as well as in other towns. Mr. Taylor has been offered a snug sum for his patent by persons interested in the manufacture of electrical goods, but has not as yet decided to sell. He will not manufacture the article himself, but will in all probability retain an interest in its manufacture when put on the market. The device is the first thing of the kind ever invented, and will undoubtedly prove a fast seller.

IMPROVEMENTS.

Attention Given to Streets on the Hill and an Alley Opened.

During the past few days, Commissioner Finley and force have been devoting time and attention to a number of thoroughfares on the hill near Avondale street. Many improvements have been made, and the streets present a much better appearance. On Oak and Riverview streets gutters have been dug to drain the accumulation of water at different points, which in many instances had become stagnant, impairing the health of residents. An alley parallel with the Buckeye pottery, and connecting Minerva street and Huston road, which had heretofore been closed to traffic, has been graded and opened to the public. Much satisfaction is expressed by those benefited by the improvements.

HE SKIPPED

Because a Maiden Was About to Prefer a Delicate Charge.

A young man, formerly employed in one of the potteries, has shook East Liverpool dust from his feet and journeyed to parts unknown. The cause of his unpremeditated departure was an ardent desire to remain single, and a horror of the county jail. A Wellsville maiden, who loved not wisely, but too well, was about to prefer a delicate charge in a local court, when friends of the unfortunate young man warned him of her intentions. Hastily gathering up such possessions as could be conveniently carried, he boarded an east-bound train, and since that time has not been seen nor heard of.

Directors Here.

The infirmary directors arrived here this afternoon and are conducting an investigation in the cases of a number of people who are dependent on the township trustees.

PLENTY OF INTEREST

Manifested at the Women's Missionary Meetings.

SPLENDID ADDRESSES DELIVERED

The Attendance Was Large and Visiting Delegates Appreciated the Hospitality Extended to Them—Many Good Speakers For Tonight.

The opening session last night of the seventeenth annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary society, Steubenville district, held in the First M. E. church, was largely attended and successfully conducted. The program, as announced in these columns, was carried out, and the addresses given were very creditable. Mrs. Ted Brooks ably presided at the organ.

The choir opened the exercises of the evening by singing "Onward, Christian Soldiers," after which Reverend Huston led in prayer. A selection by the orchestra was given, followed by the address of greeting by Mrs. Rev. Huston, who extended a warm welcome to the visiting delegates. Mrs. Alice Kneen made the response, and in behalf of the visitors expressed gratitude for the hospitality accorded them. Mrs. Rev. Stahl, of Bridgeport, then followed, and spoke on "The Need of Spiritual Power in Our Work." The topic was handled in a manner that commanded closest attention. The morning and afternoon meetings today were interesting and were observed according to the program. The closing meeting tonight will undoubtedly be an intensely enthusiastic one.

Mrs. J. R. Mills will talk on "Sketches of Our Missionaries," and Miss Emma Moore Scott, who has been engaged in doing missionary work in India for a number of years, will deliver the annual address. The lady is highly accomplished and has translated sacred music into the Hindoostani language.

EFFECTED ORGANIZATION.

The Interstate Local Telephone Association.

Delegates from 25 independent telephone exchanges met at Pittsburgh yesterday, and effected an organization to be known as the Interstate Local Telephone association, the object of which is the proper development of their business and mutual protection and information. L. J. McGhie returned this morning from the convention, and when approached by a reporter said that the prospect for the institution of an exchange of the association in this city at present is very remote, owing to the unreasonable figure demanded by council for a franchise.

ACKLAN-CROCKER NUPTIALS.

A Number From This City Were in Attendance.

The Cleveland papers devoted a great deal of space to the Acklan-Crocker nuptials, which were solemnized in that city on Wednesday, claiming that it was the prettiest wedding ever seen in Cleveland. Miss Laura Crocker is a wealthy heiress of Cleveland, while the groom is Mr. William Acklan, of Washington. Several East Liverpool people were present at the wedding, Miss Florence Cartwright acting as bridesmaid, Virgil C. Kirk as page and Miss Olive Kirk as flower girl. Dr. G. P. Kirk and wife were also in attendance.

STOLE ICE CREAM.

Three Youngsters Got Themselves Into Difficulties.

On last Tuesday night someone entered the cellar under the postoffice in which W. E. Wells manufactures his ice cream, and stole about a gallon and a half of the delicacy. Mr. Wells notified Constable Bertele, who went to work on the case at once and did some very clever detective work. This morning he succeeded in locating the thieves, three youngsters, but Mr. Wells decided to let them go if they paid for the ice cream they had stolen. The parents of the boys are all well-to-do people and for that reason the names are withheld.

Excursions to Denver.

June 12 and 13 excursion tickets will be sold to Denver, Colo., via Pennsylvania lines for meeting national council, Junior American Mechanics. For details regarding rates, time of trains, return limit of tickets, and other information, please apply to local ticket agent of Pennsylvania lines.

Died of Smallpox.

Word was received in the city this morning that Mrs. Stafford, wife of Captain Stafford, who had charge of the Salvation Army in the city for some time, had died of smallpox.

The library committee met after Trades council had adjourned and heard favorable reports from sub-committees. A nominating committee was selected to visit the business men and working men for the purpose of getting a list of names from which to select a board of directors, consisting of 11 members, the board to be divided equally between business and working men. On Monday week a meeting of all the subscribers to the library fund will be called for the purpose of selecting a board of directors from the names suggested by the nominating committee.

Circulars have been sent out to the leading publishing houses of the country for catalogues from which the volumes to be placed in the library will be selected.

Several minor arrangements were made in regard to fitting up the room in which the library will be situated, and it is expected by next Monday the room will be completed.

The committee expressed themselves as highly gratified by the way the citizens have responded to their appeal for funds, as they have at present a neat sum, and will make the library a success in every particular.

A donation of $5 was received from the street car men's union, and a number of subscriptions have been received by sub-committees, which will be published in a few days.

The library committee will meet again Friday night in the library room.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

House of a Hill Resident Struck Last Night—Damage Small.

During the electrical storm last night, the house owned and occupied by Harvey Thompson and family, on Lincoln avenue, was struck by lightning and slightly damaged. The electric fluid passed down through the roof, tearing off a few shingles, and thence through the house to the ground. All the members of the family were at home when the shock came and were greatly alarmed. Upon investigation it was found that the only damage occasioned was that sustained to the roof.

HIGHWAYMEN.

They Attack Travelers at the Jethro Bridge.

Loading at the Jethro bridge should be suppressed. There is a gang of loafers who congregate at the structure and hold up every pedestrian in that section, asking for money to buy the drinks. On Tuesday they struck the wrong man and a fight ensued, which resulted in several of the loafers being severely bruised. A farmer was attacked yesterday, but escaped by whipping up his horses and going up the road at a rapid gait. A visit from the officers would put a stop to the practice.

TANYARD RUN.

A Prominent Physician's Views on Its Condition.

In conversation with a prominent physician of the city yesterday, that gentleman expressed himself as follows, in regard to the dangerous condition of Tanyard run:

"If the council want to improve the health of the city they should do something toward sewerage Tanyard run. There is not a doubt in my mind but that the people living along the run want it sewerage. It is a natural sewer for all the land in Huston's and McKinnon's addition, and could be sewerage with but little trouble. From a sanitary point of view, it is absolutely necessary that something should be done with the run, as the time has arrived when it is a source of danger and menace to the health of every person living in that vicinity."

NAME THEM!

Give the Fellows the Send Off They Deserve.

Would-be artists and busybodies were engaged in smart Alec work the other day, using chalk in making inscriptions upon church steps and other places, against the occupants and those in the habit of attending said churches. The inscription directed the passers by to peruse the eighth verse of the 15th chapter of Matthew, which reads as follows: "This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honour me with their lips; but their heart is far from me." This passage might be applicable to numerous church members, and to some residents of East Liverpool, and no doubt is; but it is dollars to doughnuts that the chalk artist is either a whitened sepulcher or a thousand times worse than the people he attempts to castigate.

GRANTED A PATENT.

Will L. Taylor Invented a Lock For Electric Lamp Sockets.

When W. L. Taylor learned that the lads were stealing electric light bulbs from the potteries, and having fun in breaking them, he set to work to prevent the practice. Yesterday he was granted a patent on a device for locking electric lamp sockets, which will effectively put a stop to the habit of the small boy in this city, as well as in other towns. Mr. Taylor has been offered a snug sum for his patent by persons interested in the manufacture of electrical goods, but has not as yet decided to sell. He will not manufacture the article himself, but will in all probability retain an interest in its manufacture when put on the market. The device is the first thing of the kind ever invented, and will undoubtedly prove a fast seller.

IMPROVEMENTS.

Attention Given to Streets on the Hill and an Alley Opened.

During the past few days, Commissioner Finley and force have been devoting time and attention to a number of thoroughfares on the hill near Avondale street. Many improvements have been made, and the streets present a much better appearance. On Oak and Riverview streets gutters have been dug to drain the accumulation of water at different points, which in many instances had become stagnant, impairing the health of residents. An alley parallel with the Buckeye pottery, and connecting Minerva street and Huston road, which had heretofore been closed to traffic, has been graded and opened to the public. Much satisfaction is expressed by those benefited by the improvements.

HE SKIPPED

Because a Maiden Was About to Prefer a Delicate Charge.

A young man, formerly employed in one of the potteries, has shook East Liverpool dust from his feet and journeyed to parts unknown. The cause of his unpremeditated departure was an ardent desire to remain single, and a horror of the county jail. A Wellsville maiden, who loved not wisely, but too well, was about to prefer a delicate charge in a local court, when friends of the unfortunate young man warned him of her intentions. Hastily gathering up such possessions as could be conveniently carried, he boarded an east-bound train, and since that time has not been seen nor heard of.

Directors Here.

The infirmity directors arrived here this afternoon and are conducting an investigation in the cases of a number of people who are dependent on the township trustees.

PLENTY OF INTEREST

Manifested at the Women's Missionary Meetings.

SPLENDID ADDRESSES DELIVERED

The Attendance Was Large and Visiting Delegates Appreciate the Hospitality Extended to Them—Many Good Speakers For Tonight.

The opening session last night of the seventeenth annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary society, Steubenville district, held in the First M. E. church, was largely attended and successfully conducted. The program, as announced in these columns, was carried out, and the addresses given were very creditable. Mrs. Ted Brooks ably presided at the organ.

The choir opened the exercises of the evening by singing "Onward, Christian Soldiers," after which Reverend Huston led in prayer. A selection by the orchestra was given, followed by the address of greeting by Mrs. Rev. Huston, who extended a warm welcome to the visiting delegates. Mrs. Alice Kneen made the response, and in behalf of the visitors expressed gratitude for the hospitality accorded them. Mrs. Rev. Stahl, of Bridgeport, then followed, and spoke on "The Need of Spiritual Power in Our Work." The topic was handled in a manner that commanded closest attention. The morning and afternoon meetings today were interesting and were observed according to the program. The closing meeting tonight will undoubtedly be an intensely enthusiastic one.

Mrs. J. R. Mills will talk on "Sketches of Our Missionaries," and Miss Emma Moore Scott, who has been engaged in doing missionary work in India for a number of years, will deliver the annual address. The lady is highly accomplished and has translated sacred music into the Hindoostan language.

EFFECTED ORGANIZATION.

The Interstate Local Telephone Association.

Delegates from 25 independent telephone exchanges met at Pittsburgh yesterday, and effected an organization to be known as the Interstate Local Telephone association, the object of which is the proper development of their business and mutual protection and information. L. J. McGhie returned this morning from the convention, and when approached by a reporter said that the prospect for the institution of an exchange of the association in this city at present is very remote, owing to the unreasonable figure demanded by council for a franchise.

ACKLAN-CROCKER NUPTIALS.

A Number From This City Were in Attendance.

The Cleveland papers devoted a great deal of space to the Acklan-Crocker nuptials, which were solemnized in that city on Wednesday, claiming that it was the prettiest wedding ever seen in Cleveland. Miss Laura Crocker is a wealthy heiress of Cleveland, while the groom is Mr. William Acklan, of Washington. Several East Liverpool people were present at the wedding, Miss Florence Cartwright acting as bridesmaid, Virgil C. Ikert as page and Miss Olive Ikert as flower girl. Dr. G. P. Ikert and wife were also in attendance.

STOLE ICE CREAM.

Three Youngsters Got Themselves Into Difficulties.

On last Tuesday night someone entered the cellar under the postoffice in which W. E. Wells manufactures his ice cream, and stole about a gallon and a half of the delicacy. Mr. Wells notified Constable Bertele, who went to work on the case at once and did some very clever detective work. This morning he succeeded in locating the thieves, three youngsters, but Mr. Wells decided to let them go if they paid for the ice cream they had stolen. The parents of the boys are all well-to-do people and for that reason the names are withheld.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, JUNE 4.

For President,
WILLIAM McKINLEY,
Of Ohio.

HOLINESS (?) WARD.

In the light of the statements made in another column today by Messrs. Pitman and Roberts, respecting the slanderous statements made by Holiness (?) Ward, Mayor Gilbert should instruct Marshal Johnson to order Ward to keep within the limits of decency, under penalty of arrest and punishment.

ORDER THEM OFF.

A number of young boys and girls have lately been in the habit of using the sidewalks for bicycle riding, notably on Fourth street, between the postoffice and the Pottery's bank, and a youngster came within an ace of knocking a lady down last evening, in the vicinity mentioned. Offenders should be called down at once, and if they fail to obey the order, Mayor Gilbert should see to it that they are made sorry for their reprehensible conduct. The streets are wide enough to accommodate bike riders and the pavements are intended for pedestrians.

QUEER CREATURES.

In another column of this day's issue we publish an article clipped from the Detroit Press, with comments from the Glass and Crocker World, an editorial dealing with the political "Boss" and the "Lackpittles and fractions of men" that bow down to and worship the aforesaid "Boss," catching the crumbs which fall from their masters' table, and the dogs which remain in his glass. It is a vivid picture, and the writer has fully possessed himself with one of the forms of depravity of political life, as at present exemplified in this country. Surely we need to turn on the light.

SQUARE DEALING.

The average merchant is a fair and square dealer, meeting his obligations. Of course there are exceptions, but the rule holds good in favor of the fair and honest man. There is a class of patrons, men who deal with the butcher, baker, shoe dealer, dry goods dealer, and even the poor printer, who make it the aim of their life to get something for nothing, men who are fair in promises, but who never fulfill. These fellows are a curse to the community at large, as business men lose snug sums through them annually, and there should be a combination among the merchants, by and through which these dead beats should be made known and compelled to pay spot cash for everything they order or receive.

POOR GROVER.

Did you hear about that veto? What veto? Why, Grover's veto. What did Grover veto? Oh, my; don't you know that he vetoed the river and harbor bill, a bill calculated to do wonderful good for the Ohio valley and the arteries leading thereto? Did he? Yes, he did. And what did the people do? Well, in the first place, the people, through their representatives, in the House at Washington, told Grover, through a large majority vote, in fact an overwhelming vote, that his veto was no good. They did? Yes, they did. Well, did that settle it? No, it did not. How did the fight come out? Well, they settled the whole affair in the senate yesterday. Did they? Yes, they did. What did they do in the senate? Why, they laughed at Grover's veto, and passed the bill over his head, by the vote of 56 against 5. They did? Yes, they did. My, wasn't that an awful humiliation to Grover? Wonder what made those men in the senate hit him so hard? Well, in the first place Grover has become entirely too fresh; he thinks, by his conduct, that no one but him knows anything, and he treats the representatives of the people as if they were school boys; in fact, Grover is better fitted to be a dictator than he is to be the president of the United States. Further than this, the river and harbor bill is a great feature, and the passage of the bill will find general approval among the masses. Do you think it will? Yes, I believe it will. Well, I'm with the people, and I'm glad Grover got knocked out; but he must feel awful bad, you know, because he's been running things to suit himself; he says he vetoed the bill because there is no money in the treasury; but that's a poor excuse, for we know he had the chance to have the coffers full; but he preferred to run his pet mania of free trade, and sent all the loose funds to foreign countries, to help other countries along, and let our workmen do nothing. Yes, Grover has deserved his downfall.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

Confiscation of Mileage Books Is Held to Be Illegal.

FINDLAY, O., June 4.—The circuit court here has rendered decision in an important test case as to the right of a railroad conductor to confiscate a mileage book when it is presented by a person other than the one to whom it was sold. The title of the case is Arthur J. Morton vs. the Lake Erie and Western Railroad company. Morton is a local ticket broker, and purchased a mileage book from the defendant company.

A third person attempted to use it, and a conductor of the railroad company took it up and collected fare. Morton brought suit to recover for the value of the book. He won in the justice's court, but lost in the common pleas. The circuit court reverses the last decision and awards Morton judgment for the full amount of his claim, together with interest and costs.

Judge Seney delivered the court's opinion, and said that there was nothing in the contract between Morton and the railroad company whereby the latter acquired a title to the ticket, because it was in the hands of a third person. The most the conductor could do would be to refuse to accept the ticket from the third party and collect the regular fare. Morton purchased the book, and the title passed from the railroad company when it was sold.

The case will probably go to the supreme court.

THE DAYTON CENTENNIAL.

A Program for the Week's Celebration Arranged.

DAYTON, O., June 4.—The executive committee having in charge the preparations for a general celebration of Dayton centennial has held a meeting and arranged for attractions covering one week. The features of the program, as arranged, are as follows:

Monday, Sept. 14—A cannon salute of 100 guns and a general decoration of the city.

Tuesday—A parade of all the school children in the morning and a bicycle parade in the evening, with prizes for the finest decorated wheel.

Wednesday—An industrial, civic and military parade, and in the evening the band concerts.

Thursday—A drill in which it is expected that crack military organizations from all parts of the country will participate. Prizes aggregating about $8,000 will be awarded. In the evening there will be a magnificent fireworks display.

For Friday an effort will be made to secure several baseball games between some of the leading teams of the league. In the evening there will be a trolley carnival.

OPPOSED TO BUTLER'S BILL.

It Will Likely Be Reported Adversely to the House.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The Republican members of the ways and means committee, with other Republican leaders of the house, have held a conference to discuss the anti-bond bill passed by the senate. Two or three members advised that the committee ignore the resolution and let it rest for this session. They argued that little if any time could be given to the question in the house without delaying the adjournment, for which all the members are anxious, but it is understood that the members holding this view were in the minority. Others were desirous to dispose of the resolution without delay to put at rest any apprehension that might be excited by it in business circles.

It is understood that every Republican member of the committee will vote for an adverse report and that Mr. Turner (Ga.) of the Democrats, will vote with them. Mr. Turner announced that he desired an opportunity to vote for an adverse report before adjournment. Messrs. Wheeler (Ala.), McMillin (Tenn.), McArthur (S. C.), Crisp (Ga.), of the Democrats, it is supposed will support the resolution and Mr. Cobb (Mo.) oppose it.

To Honor Confederate Dead.

COLUMBUS, June 4.—A detachment of volunteers from the Fourteenth Ohio national guard will fire a salute next Sunday morning over the graves of the 2,500 Confederate dead that are buried here.

Bankers Declared For Gold.

WHEELING, June 4.—At the annual meeting of the Bankers Association of West Virginia at Fairmont free silver coinage was discussed and a resolution favoring the gold standard was passed. The bankers present were about evenly divided politically, but are unanimous against free silver. A banquet tendered by Fairmont bankers was held, at which all the speakers declared for sound money and against free silver.

Thirteen Hurt by an Elevator.

BALTIMORE, June 4.—Thirteen people have been more or less seriously injured by the fall of an elevator in the building occupied by the Friedenwald Printing company. Those who will probably die are Mary Jackson, whose back and both legs were broken, and Thomas Knapp, internally hurt.

Disappeared With $100,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—Philip Oppenheim, who was ordered by Judge Prewett of the Sacramento superior court to turn over to M. Yates, as receiver, $100,000 which he held as trustee for his mother, has disappeared.

Lady Accused of Re-Elected.

LONDON, June 4.—The only important step at the meeting of the British Women's Temperance association was the re-election of Lady Henry Somerset as president.

War Materials Found in Dublin.

DUBLIN, June 4.—The police here have made an extraordinary discovery of military rifles, bayonets and ammunition in a house in Lower Tyne street.

TO TAKE A CUBAN PORT

A Filibustering Expedition Slips Out of Mobile.

ARMED FOR A NAVAL BATTLE.

The Expedition Will Combine With Gomez and Seize a Seaport Town and Fortify It—Rebels Will Then Be Entitled to Recognition.

MOBILE, June 4.—A Cuban expedition has left here to aid the insurgents on the Plant Line steamship Algiers.

The Algiers is not the ship destined to bear the precious cargo to the shores of Cuba, but she will either transfer the men to the real filibuster on the high seas or take them on to Florida and land them where they can be picked up. The steamer that is to take the expedition to Cuba is claimed to be the Clearwater, a British steamer of 791 tons and 17 knots under ordinary, with a maximum of 18 knots under forced draft. She is a trim, swift ship and fully able to outrun anything the Cuban contingent of the Spanish navy can boast.

There is a great deal more in this expedition than a mere attempt to land men and munitions of war on the island. It is hoped that the decisive stroke will be made that will put the Cuban government in a position to command that recognition from foreign powers that she has heretofore been denied on the ground that, as she could not hold a seaport, she could not be considered as the government or even as a belligerent in the international acceptance of the term.

No amount of persuasion could induce any of the Cubans to divulge the prospective point of landing, but it is probably Matanzas, as they claim that when they arrive off the Cuban coast they will come into communication with Gomez, and by a joint attack on a seaport endeavor to capture it, and then, by unloading the guns from the filibustering vessel, fortify the port by sea and land and hold it long enough to entitle them to recognition.

"This story sounds like a wild dream," said one of the enthusiastic patriots, "but even though it may never materialize, the effort is to be made, and with two modern pneumatic guns, two 4-inch rifled pieces and six rapid-firing guns, with plenty of ammunition, we ought to be able to make it interesting for the little third or fourth-rate gunboats of the Spanish navy, while if a superior force attacks us, we can, with the steamers we have secured, soon leave the Spaniards nothing but our smoke to gaze upon."

The authorities have been completely hoodwinked and have little or no chance of overhauling the expedition even if they make the attempt.

NO RESTRICTIONS ON LEE.

The Madrid Government Gives Him Permission to Investigate.

RICHMOND, June 4.—The cause of the delay in the departure of Consul General Lee for Cuba is now definitely known. For several weeks past the state department at Washington has been in correspondence with the government at Madrid with a view of arranging for General Lee to be free to visit the camps of the insurgents, as well as those of the Spanish.

This was General Lee's wish, in order to enable him to make a thoroughly satisfactory report of the condition of affairs on the island to President Cleveland. Now that the consul general has sailed for Havana, it is assumed that the Madrid government accorded him the freedom of movement desired.

It is well understood that this official expects to make a thorough and prompt report to the state department whether the president should in his judgment recognize the independence of Cuba. It is not at all improbable that this report will be favorable to the insurgents, and that it may possibly be expected before the Chicago convention meets and acts.

THE U. P. ASSEMBLY.

Rock Island, Ill., Selected For the Next Meeting Place.

XENIA, O., June 4.—At the United Presbyterian general assembly the matter of a financial secretary to devote all his time to the church was laid on the table. The report of the committee on education was accepted, showing students in attendance at theological seminaries 143; enrolled in colleges, 1,142. The productive endowment of seminaries $291,800, of colleges, $352,000; total, $643,800; an increase of $11,400 during the year. The board asks for appropriations of $12,000 for the regular work and $20,000 to the special educational fund. The matter of co-operation with the Presbyterians in home missionary work was defeated.

The subject of foreign missions took up a good deal of time, in which it appeared that only one missionary to every 4,000 Christians was sent out, that the United Presbyterians pay $1 per member for missionary work more than any other denomination. Dr. J. D. Irons was confined as professor of Greek and Hebrew in the Xenia seminary. The place for the next meeting of the assembly was fixed for Rock Island, Ills. Erie, Pa., was a competitor for the meeting.

House Preparing for Adjournment.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The house has begun clearing the decks for final adjournment by extending the length of the daily sessions. The house met at 11 o'clock and sat until 6. In addition to this Mr. Dingley, the floor leader of the majority, gave notice that henceforth he should object to all leaves of absence, save such as were requested on account of sickness. The importance of keeping a quorum constantly in attendance, he explained, compelled him to take this step.

Proper Plates Will Be Substituted.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The navy department has finally consented to allow the Union iron works of California to replace the defective steel deck plates wrought into the protective deck of the battleship Oregon and brought to the attention of the department through one of the employees of the contractors. Plates of proper thickness have been ordered from Pittsburgh.

Reformed Church Synod.

Tobacco Dealers say, that "BATTLE AX" is a "scorching" because it sells so fast. Tobacco Chewers say, it is a "scorching" because 5 cents' worth goes so far. It's as good as can be made regardless of cost. The 5 cent piece is almost as large as the other fellows' 10 cent piece.

LIVELY RACE TO GREENLAND.

Explorers Dyche and Peary Aach After a Big Meteorite.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 4.—It is possible that there is an object that does not appear on the surface of the sudden departure for Alaska of Prof. L. I. Dyche of the Kansas State university. During his northern trip last summer the professor paid a visit, while in Greenland, to the largest meteorite in the world, and immediately announced his determination to possess it. Lieutenant Peary, however, claimed the meteorite by right of discovery, and warned the professor not to attempt to remove it. As the meteorite weighs dozens of tons Peary's warning was of necessity heeded at the time, but Prof. Dyche stated distinctly that he intended, within a few years, to return to Greenland for the meteorite.

Last week the dispatches announced that Lieutenant Peary would sail for Greenland this summer to secure the meteorite. As soon as Prof. Dyche can reach Seattle, he, too, will sail for the north and it is quite probable that his destination is neither Alaska nor the North Pole, but the point in Greenland where the meteorite lies.

Prof. Dyche will have the longer route through Behring straits and the northwest passage, but he is a man of great energy and if he has, in reality started on a race for the coveted meteorite, the chances are in favor of a lively race to Greenland. The meteorite is roughly estimated to be worth $50,000.

LAW IN SPITE OF VETO.

The River and Harbor Bill Passed the Senate.

ONLY FIVE VOTES AGAINST IT.

Hot Speeches Made Against the Veto.

Others Upheld It—Tillman Made Characteristic Remarks, When the Naval Bill Came Up—Washington News.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The senate has passed the river and harbor bill over the president's veto by the vote of 56 to 5. This was the last step in making the bill effective, and it is now a law. The vote was taken after three hours of spirited debate, during which the president's veto was criticised and defended, the remarks at times being directly and bitterly personal. The opposition to the veto was expressed by Senators Vest, Sherman, Pettigrew, Hawley and Butler, while the veto was defended by Senators Vilas, Hill and Bate.

This closed the speechmaking and the vote was taken, resulting in the passage of the bill over the president's veto—yeas, 56; nays, 5—as follows:

Yeas—Republicans—Aldrich, Allison, Burrows, Cannon, Carter, Chandler, Clark, Cullom, Davis, Dubois, Elkins, Gallinger, Gear, Hale, Hansbrough, Hawley, Lodge, McBride, Mitchell (Or.), Nelson, Perkins, Pettigrew, Platt, Pritchard, Quay, Sherman, Shoup, Squire, Teller, Warren, Wetmore, Wilson and Wolcott—38. Democrats—Bacon, Berry, Brice, Faulkner, George, Gorman, Jones (Ark.), Lindsay, Mills, Mitchell (Wis.), Morgan, Pasco, Pugh, Tillman, Turpie, Vest, Walcott, White and White—19. Populists—Butler, Jones (Nev.), Puffer, Stewart—4. Total 56.

Nays—Democrats—Bate, Chilton, Hill, Smith, Vilas—5.

Mr. Sherman endeavored to go on with the filled cheese bill, but Mr. Vest objected, stating that he was tired of having this filled cheese bill thrust forward constantly. Mr. Vest said the bill could be defeated by a filibuster, but this would not be resorted to.

When a partial conference report was presented on the naval appropriation bill Mr. Quay moved that the senate recede from its amendment reducing the number of battleships from four to two. This brought on an extended debate. In its course Mr. Tillman (S. C.) spoke in his usual breezy way on "armor robbers." He referred to the grip by the throat which the armor concerns had on congress, and looking around the senate asked if there were attorneys or a lobby here or senators interested in seeing these contracts given out. A final vote on the item of battleships will be taken today.

The Weather.

Partly cloudy; probably local showers, warmer in Ohio; light easterly to southerly winds.

A Woman Drugged With Honey.

COLUMBUS, June 4.—Mrs. C. Riddle of Delaware has made a peculiar complaint to the police. She said that while on a train on her way to this city she smelled some strained honey which was showing to some passengers. Immediately afterward she became drowsy and finally fell into a deep sleep. When she awoke she missed her pocketbook containing $8 in money and a check for $30. Mrs. Riddle says she was drugged.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, JUNE 4.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
Ohio.

HOLINESS (?) WARD.

In the light of the statements made in another column today by Messrs. Pitman and Roberts, respecting the slanderous statements made by Holiness (?) Ward, Mayor Gilbert should instruct Marshal Johnson to order Ward to keep within the limits of decency, under penalty of arrest and punishment.

ORDER THEM OFF.

A number of young boys and girls have lately been in the habit of using the sidewalks for bicycle riding, notably on Fourth street, between the postoffice and the Potters' bank, and a youngster came within an ace of knocking a lady down last evening, in the vicinity mentioned. Offenders should be called down at once, and if they fail to obey the order, Mayor Gilbert should see to it that they are made sorry for their reprehensible conduct. The streets are wide enough to accommodate bike riders and the pavements are intended for pedestrians.

QUEER CREATURES.

In another column of this day's issue we publish an article clipped from the Detroit Press, with comments from the Glass and Crocker World, an editorial dealing with the political "Boss" and the "Licksittles and fractions of men" that bow down to and worship the aforesaid "Boss," catching the crumbs which fall from their masters' table, and the dregs which remain in his glass. It is a vivid pen picture, and the writer has fully posted himself with one of the forms of depravity of political life, as at present exemplified in this country. Surely we need to turn on the light.

SQUARE DEALING.

The average merchant is a fair and square dealer, meeting his obligations. Of course there are exceptions, but the rule holds good in favor of the fair and honest man. There is a class of patrons, men who deal with the butcher, baker, shoe dealer, dry goods dealer, and even the poor printer, who make it the aim of their life to get something for nothing, men who are fair in promises, but who never fulfill. These fellows are a curse to the community at large, as business men lose snug sums through them annually, and there should be a combination among the merchants, by and through which these dead beats should be made known and compelled to pay spot cash for everything they order or receive.

POOR GROVER.

Did you hear about that veto? What veto? Why, Grover's veto. What did Grover veto? Oh, my; don't you know that he vetoed the river and harbor bill, a bill calculated to do wonderful good for the Ohio valley and the arteries leading thereto? Did he? Yes, he did. And what did the people do? Well, in the first place, the people, through their representatives, in the House at Washington, told Grover, through a large majority vote, in fact an overwhelming vote, that his veto was no good. They did. Yes, they did. Well, did that settle it? No, it did not. How did the fight come out? Well, they settled the whole affair in the senate yesterday. Did they? Yes, they did. What did they do in the senate? Why, they laughed at Grover's veto, and passed the bill over his head, by the vote of 56 against 5. They did. Yes, they did. My, wasn't that an awful humiliation to Grover? Wonder what made those men in the senate hit him so hard? Well, in the first place Grover has become entirely too fresh; he thinks, by his conduct, that no one but him knows anything, and he treats the representatives of the people as if they were school boys; in fact, Grover is better fitted to be a dictator than he is to be the president of the United States. Further than this, the river and harbor bill is a great feature, and the passage of the bill will find general approval among the masses. Do you think it will? Yes, I believe it will. Well, I'm with the people, and I'm glad Grover got knocked out; but he must feel awful bad, you know, because he's been running things to suit himself; he says he vetoed the bill because there is no money in the treasury; but that's a poor excuse, for we know he had the chance to have the coffers full; but he preferred to run his pet mania of free trade, and sent all the loose funds to foreign countries, to help other countries along, and let our workmen do nothing. Yes, Grover has deserved his downfall.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

Confiscation of Mileage Books Is Held to Be Illegal.

FINDLAY, O., June 4.—The circuit court here has rendered decision in an important test case as to the right of a railroad conductor to confiscate a mileage book when it is presented by a person other than the one to whom it was sold. The title of the case is Arthur J. Morton vs. the Lake Erie and Western Railroad company. Morton is a local ticket broker, and purchased a mileage book from the defendant company. A third person attempted to use it, and a conductor of the railroad company took it up and collected fare. Morton brought suit to recover for the value of the book. He won in the justice's court, but lost in the common pleas. The circuit court reverses the last decision and awards Morton judgment for the full amount of his claim, together with interest and costs.

Judge Seney delivered the court's opinion, and said that there was nothing in the contract between Morton and the railroad company whereby the latter acquired a title to the ticket because it was in the hands of a third person. The most the conductor could do would be to refuse to accept the ticket from the third party and collect the regular fare. Morton purchased the book, and the title passed from the railroad company when it was sold.

The case will probably go to the supreme court.

THE DAYTON CENTENNIAL.

A Program for the Week's Celebration Arranged.

DAYTON, O., June 4.—The executive committee having in charge the preparations for a general celebration of Dayton centennial has held a meeting and arranged for attractions covering one week. The features of the program, as arranged, are as follows:

Monday, Sept. 14—A cannon salute of 100 guns and a general decoration of the city.

Tuesday—A parade of all the school children in the morning and a bicycle parade in the evening, with prizes for the finest decorated wheel.

Wednesday—An industrial, civic and military parade, and in the evening the band concerts.

Thursday—A drill in which it is expected that crack military organizations from all parts of the country will participate. Prizes aggregating about $8,000 will be awarded. In the evening there will be a magnificent fireworks display.

For Friday an effort will be made to secure several baseball games between some of the leading teams of the league. In the evening there will be a trolley carnival.

OPPOSED TO BUTLER'S BILL.

It Will Likely Be Reported Adversely to the House.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The Republican members of the ways and means committee, with other Republican leaders of the house, have held a conference to discuss the anti-bond bill passed by the senate. Two or three members advised that the committee ignore the resolution and let it rest for this session. They argued that little if any time could be given to the question in the house without delaying the adjournment, for which all the members are anxious, but it is understood that the members holding this view were in the minority. Others were desirous to dispose of the resolution without delay to put at rest any apprehension that might be excited by it in business circles.

It is understood that every Republican member of the committee will vote for an adverse report and that Mr. Turner (Ga.) of the Democrats, will vote with them. Mr. Turner announced that he desired an opportunity to vote for an adverse report before adjournment. Messrs. Wheeler (Ala.), McMillin (Tenn.), McLaughlin (S. C.), Crisp (Ga.), of the Democrats, it is supposed will support the resolution and Mr. Cobb (Mo.) oppose it.

To Honor Confederate Dead.

COLUMBUS, June 4.—A detachment of volunteers from the Fourteenth Ohio national guard will fire a salute next Sunday morning over the graves of the 2,500 Confederate dead that are buried here.

Bankers Declared For Gold.

WHEELING, June 4.—At the annual meeting of the Bankers Association of West Virginia at Fairmont free silver coinage was discussed and a resolution favoring the gold standard was passed. The bankers present were about evenly divided politically, but are unanimous against free silver. A banquet tendered by Fairmont bankers was held, at which all the speakers declared for sound money and against free silver.

Thirteen Hurt by an Elevator.

BALTIMORE, June 4.—Thirteen people have been more or less seriously injured by the fall of an elevator in the building occupied by the Friedenwald Printing company. Those who will probably die are Mary Jackson, whose back and both legs were broken, and Thomas Knapp, internally hurt.

Disappeared With $100,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—Philip Oppenheim, who was ordered by Judge Prewett of the Sacramento superior court to turn over to M. Yates, as receiver, $100,000 which he held as trustee for his mother, has disappeared.

Lady Somerset Re-Elected.

LONDON, June 4.—The only important step at the meeting of the British Women's Temperance association was the re-election of Lady Henry Somerset as president.

War Materials Found in Dublin.

DUBLIN, June 4.—The police here have made an extraordinary discovery of military rifles, bayonets and ammunition in a house in Lower Tyone street.

TO TAKE A CUBAN PORT

A Filibustering Expedition Slips Out of Mobile.

ARMED FOR A NAVAL BATTLE.

The Expedition Will Combine With Gomez and Seize a Seaport Town and Fortify It—Rebels Will Then Be Entitled to Recognition.

MOBILE, June 4.—A Cuban expedition has left here to aid the insurgents on the Plant Line steamship Algiers.

The Algiers is not the ship destined to bear the precious cargo to the shores of Cuba, but she will either transfer the men to the real filibuster on the high seas or take them on to Florida and land them where they can be picked up. The steamer that is to take the expedition to Cuba is claimed to be the Clearwater, a British steamer of 791 tons and 17 knots under ordinary, with a maximum of 18 knots under forced draft. She is a trim, swift ship and fully able to outrun anything the Cuban contingent of the Spanish navy can boast.

There is a great deal more in this expedition than a mere attempt to land men and munitions of war on the island. It is hoped that the decisive stroke will be made that will put the Cuban government in a position to command that recognition from foreign powers that she has heretofore been denied on the ground that, as she could not hold a seaport, she could not be considered as the government or even as a belligerent in the international acceptance of the term.

No amount of persuasion could induce any of the Cubans to divulge the prospective point of landing, but it is probably Matanzas, as they claim that when they arrive off the Cuban coast they will come into communication with Gomez, and by a joint attack on a seaport endeavor to capture it, and then, by unloading the guns from the filibustering vessel, fortify the port by sea and land and hold it long enough to entitle them to recognition.

"This story sounds like a wild dream," said one of the enthusiastic patriots, "but, even though it may never be realized, the effort is to be made, and with two modern pneumatic guns, two 4-inch rifled pieces and six rapid-firing guns, with plenty of ammunition, we ought to be able to make four-rate gunboats of the Spanish navy, while if a superior force attacks us, we can, with the steamers we have secured, soon leave the Spaniards nothing but our smoke to gaze upon."

The authorities have been completely hoodwinked and have little or no chance of overhauling the expedition even if they make the attempt.

NO RESTRICTIONS ON LEE.

The Madrid Government Gives Him Permission to Investigate.

RICHMOND, June 4.—The cause of the delay in the departure of Consul General Lee for Cuba is now definitely known. For several weeks past the state department at Washington has been in correspondence with the government at Madrid with a view of arranging for General Lee to be free to visit the camps of the insurgents, as well as those of the Spaniards.

This was General Lee's wish, in order to enable him to make a thoroughly satisfactory report of the condition of affairs on the island to President Cleveland. Now that the consul general has sailed for Havana, it is assumed that the Madrid government accorded him the freedom of movement desired.

It is well understood that this official expects to make a thorough and prompt report to the state department whether the president should in his judgment recognize the independence of Cuba. It is not at all improbable that this report will be favorable to the insurgents, and that it may possibly be expected before the Chicago convention meets and acts.

An American Correspondent Arrested.

HAVANA, June 4.—An American citizen named Thomas Daly, said to be the correspondent of a New York newspaper, accused of having taken photographs of the country in Pinar del Rio in violation of the military regulations, has arrived here under escort. He is held while awaiting instructions from Captain General Weyler.

General Lee at His Post.

HAVANA, June 4.—General Fitzhugh Lee, recently appointed United States consul general here in succession to Mr. Ramon O. Williams, resigned, has arrived here by the Ward Line steamer Mascotte. He was received with honor.

Will Give Spain an Ironclad.

BARCELONA, June 4.—The municipal authorities of this city have decided to purchase the Italian ironclad Genoa and present it to the government.

Will Cut His Own Salary.

PORTLAND, Or., June 4.—In speaking of his policy as mayor of this city, ex-Governor and Mayor-elect Penney said: "I shall endeavor to reduce expenses whenever I can to meet the existing conditions. While endeavoring to faithfully discharge my duty as mayor, I shall take but one-half the salary."

Reformed Church Synod.

DAYTON, O., June 4.—In the Reformed church synod six appeal cases, three from the eastern synod and three from the synod of the northwest, were given disposal. The cases of Revs. Wittenberg, Brock and Loos vs. the Northwestern synod, were decided against the ministers.

Behring Sea Convention Ratified.

LONDON, June 4.—The Behring sea convention has been ratified by United States Ambassador Bayard and the Marquis of Salisbury, as minister of foreign affairs.

Arthur Re-Elected Chief.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 4.—P. M. Arthur has been re-elected chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers by a vote of 326 to 56 for Halberstick of Wisconsin.

LIVELY RACE TO GREENLAND.

Explorers Dyche and Peary Aach After a Big Meteorite.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 4.—It is possible that there is an object that does not appear on the surface of the sudden departure for Alaska of Prof. L. I. Dyche of the Kansas State university. During his northern trip last summer the professor paid a visit, while in Greenland, to the largest meteorite in the world, and immediately announced his determination to possess it. Lieutenant Peary, however, claimed the meteorite by right of discovery, and warned the professor not to attempt to remove it. As the meteorite weighs dozens of tons Peary's warning was of necessity heeded at the time, but Prof. Dyche stated distinctly that he intended, within a few years, to return to Greenland for the meteorite.

Last week the dispatches announced that Lieutenant Peary would sail for Greenland this summer to secure the meteorite. As soon as Prof. Dyche can reach Seattle, he, too, will sail for the north and it is quite probable that his destination is neither Alaska nor the North Pole, but the point in Greenland where the meteorite lies.

Prof. Dyche will have the longer route through Behring straits and the northwest passage, but he is a man of great energy and if he has, in reality started on a race for the coveted meteorite, the chances are in favor of a lively race to Greenland. The meteorite is roughly estimated to be worth $50,000.

THE U. P. ASSEMBLY.

Rock Island, Ills., Selected For the Next Meeting Place.

XENIA, O., June 4.—At the United Presbyterian general assembly the matter of a financial secretary to devote all his time to the church was laid on the table. The report of the committee on education was accepted, showing students in attendance at theological seminaries 143; enrolled in colleges, 1,142. The productive endowment of seminaries $291,800; of colleges, $352,000; total, $644,400; an increase of $11,400 during the year. The board asks for appropriations of $12,000 for the regular work and $20,000 to the special educational fund. The matter of co-operation with the Presbyterians in home missionary work was defeated.

The subject of foreign missions took up a good deal of time, in which it appeared that only one missionary to every 4,000 Christians was sent out, that the United Presbyterians pay $1 per member for missionary work more than any other denomination. Dr. J. D. Irons was confirmed as professor of Greek and Hebrew in the Xenia seminary. The place for the next meeting of the assembly was fixed for Rock Island, Ills. Erie, Pa., was a competitor for the meeting.

House Preparing For Adjournment.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The house has begun clearing the decks for final adjournment by extending the length of the daily sessions. The house met at 11 o'clock and sat until 6. In addition to this Mr. Dingley, the floor leader of the majority, gave notice that henceforth he should object to all leaves of absence, save such as were requested on account of sickness. The importance of keeping a quorum constantly in attendance, he explained, compelled him to take this step.

Proper Plates Will Be Substituted.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The navy department has finally consented to allow the Union iron works of California to replace the defective steel deck plates wrought into the protective deck of the battleship Oregon and brought to the attention of the department through one of the employees of the contractors. Plates of proper thickness have been ordered from Pittsburgh.

Partly cloudy; probably local showers, warmer in Ohio; light easterly to southerly winds.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Theodore Kaufman has moved his family to a point beyond Chester.

The high school of Wellsville are picnicking at Columbian park today.

Miss Clara Mumford, of California hollow, is confined to her home with illness.

Charles Macrum, wife and daughter, Natalie, are spending two weeks in the country.

Miss Anna Beardmore, of Wall street, is slowly recovering from an attack of typhoid fever.

A party of fishermen left the city for Fredericktown this morning, headed by H. E. Grosshaus.

A great many of the old soldiers and widows are having their pension vouchers signed today.

A party of campers left the city this morning for Hail Deadening, where they will spend the summer.

A number of the members of the Columbian club drove out to the creek this morning to spend the day fishing.

Mrs. James McCormick, of Third street, is slowly recovering from the effects of injuries received recently from a fall.

The Lorena passed up at noon today, and the Bedford is due for Pittsburg at 6 o'clock. The Ben Hur will pass down this evening.

The East End pottery is at present running about half time, but the management expect to start the plant in a couple of weeks.

The commencement exercises of the class of '96, at Mt. Hope college, will be held this afternoon, and a number from this city are in attendance.

The Catholic club is picnicking at Rock Spring grove this afternoon, and the grounds will be occupied by the Moonlight social club tonight.

Mail Carrier Charles Smith, who had a number of bones in his wrist fractured a short time ago, is so improved that he is able to again resume his duties.

The construction of the warehouse of the Metch mill is being gotten well under way, and the completion of the structure will soon be accomplished.

Trade has become so dull with the D. E. McNicol Pottery company that it has been deemed necessary to close the entire plant until a revival in business.

While descending Washington street last night, a motorman lost control of his car, but successfully rounded the curve, narrowly averting an accident.

The trustees of Spring Grove cemetery have placed a pump in position near the upper avenue, and now have an abundance of good spring water—none better.

The banquet given by the Eastern Star last night was largely attended. The evening was spent in music and dancing, and a very enjoyable time was had by all.

William Scott, colored, of Lisbon, formerly a barber in this city, died at his home of consumption yesterday morning, and was buried there this afternoon.

The suit entered by J. B. McLaughlin against Reverend Huston for $132, claimed due for professional services, will be heard Saturday morning by Squire Manley.

An unusual state of activity is being experienced at Boyce's foundry. A number of extra employees were added to the works yesterday, the demand for bath tubs continuing to increase.

A letter received from Joseph Chapman, who is making a tour of the state on his wheel, says that he has arrived at Columbus, and that his journey so far has been devoid of any unusual happenings.

The Young People's society of the German Lutheran church will hold their annual picnic next Tuesday at Rock Springs. Preparations are being made to make the occasion an enjoyable one.

The rain last night washed a quantity of earth and gravel on the street car tracks near Wellsville and delayed traffic for nearly an hour. A force of men were put to work and the track was soon cleared.

The amount of hobos seen on the streets is steadily increasing as the warm weather approaches. The Wandering Willies should be put to work on the streets, and they will soon learn to give this place a wide berth.

Miss Lizzie West, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. C. Deidrick, of Fifth street, will leave for her home in Mt. Vernon, N. Y., tonight, having received word that her brother and his wife have been taken seriously ill.

Miss Pauline Crook was gliding swiftly and gracefully along Fourth street last evening, seated on a handsome bike, when the steed of steel became unmanageable and darted in upon the curb, just in front of Harvey Badgley's place of business, unseating the fair rider and hurling her at full length upon the pavement. The courageous little lady was on her feet instantly, and mounting again, went dashing down street, apparently uninjured.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Theodore Kaufman has moved his family to a point beyond Chester.

The high school of Wellsville are picnicking at Columbian park today.

Miss Clara Mumford, of California hollow, is confined to her home with illness.

Charles Macrum, wife and daughter, Natalie, are spending two weeks in the country.

Miss Anna Beardmore, of Wall street, is slowly recovering from an attack of typhoid fever.

A party of fishermen left the city for Fredericktown this morning, headed by H. E. Grosshaus.

A great many of the old soldiers and widows are having their pension vouchers signed today.

A party of campers left the city this morning for Hail Deadening, where they will spend the summer.

A number of the members of the Columbian club drove out to the creek this morning to spend the day fishing.

Mrs. James McCormick, of Third street, is slowly recovering from the effects of injuries received recently from a fall.

The Lorena passed up at noon today, and the Bedford is due for Pittsburg at 6 o'clock. The Ben Hur will pass down this evening.

The East End pottery is at present running about half time, but the management expect to start the plant in a couple of weeks.

The commencement exercises of the class of '96, at Mt. Hope college, will be held this afternoon, and a number from this city are in attendance.

The Catholic club is picnicking at Rock Spring grove this afternoon, and the grounds will be occupied by the Moonlight social club tonight.

Mail Carrier Charles Smith, who had a number of bones in his wrist fractured a short time ago, is so improved that he is able to again resume his duties.

The construction of the warehouse of the Metsch mill is being gotten well under way, and the completion of the structure will soon be accomplished.

Trade has become so dull with the D. E. McNicol Pottery company that it has been deemed necessary to close the entire plant until a revival in business.

While descending Washington street last night, a motorman lost control of his car, but successfully rounded the curve, narrowly averting an accident.

The trustees of Spring Grove cemetery have placed a pump in position near the upper avenue, and now have an abundance of good spring water—none better.

The banquet given by the Eastern Star last night was largely attended. The evening was spent in music and dancing, and a very enjoyable time was had by all.

William Scott, colored, of Lisbon, formerly a barber in this city, died at his home of consumption yesterday morning, and was buried there this afternoon.

Frank Dickey drove out to East Palestine yesterday with a wagon load of kilnbands, to be placed on the new kilns that are being added to the pottery at that place.

Mr. John Hulse, who was recently united in marriage to Mrs. Cooper, tendered ice cream and cake to the Daughters of St. George last night in honor of the event.

The suit entered by J. B. McLaughlin against Reverend Huston for $132, claimed due for professional services, will be heard Saturday morning by Squire Manley.

An unusual state of activity is being experienced at Boyce's foundry. A number of extra employees were added to the works yesterday, the demand for bath tubs continuing to increase.

A letter received from Joseph Chapman, who is making a tour of the state on his wheel, says that he has arrived at Columbus, and that his journey so far has been devoid of any unusual happenings.

The Young People's society of the German Lutheran church will hold their annual picnic next Tuesday at Rock Springs. Preparations are being made to make the occasion an enjoyable one.

The rain last night washed a quantity of earth and gravel on the street car tracks near Wellsville and delayed traffic for nearly an hour. A force of men were put to work and the track was soon cleared.

The amount of hobos seen on the streets is steadily increasing as the warm weather approaches. The Wandering Willies should be put to work on the streets, and they will soon learn to give this place a wide berth.

Miss Lizzie West, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. C. Deidrick, of Fifth street, will leave for her home in Mt. Vernon, N. Y., tonight, having received word that her brother and his wife have been taken seriously ill.

Miss Pauline Crook was gliding swiftly and gracefully along Fourth street last evening, seated on a handsome bike, when the steed of steel became unmanageable and darted in upon the curb, just in front of Harvey Badgley's place of business, unseating the fair rider and hurling her at full length upon the pavement. The courageous little lady was on her feet instantly, and mounting again, went dashing down street, apparently uninjured.

SOME SPORTING NOTES

Winnie Mercer Pitches Another Good Game.

SCORE A TIE IN ELEVEN INNINGS

The Columbus Go to Wellsville Saturday and the Clerks Will Play in the Same Place Tuesday—The Lineup of the Liverpool-Youngstown Game.

Winnie Mercer again covered himself with glory yesterday by pitching a tie game of 11 innings against Cleveland, the score standing 3 to 3 when the game was called on account of darkness. When it is taken into consideration that Mercer left home on Tuesday evening and traveled all night, his work yesterday is phenomenal, the Cleveland's securing but nine hits off his delivery. Mercer didn't give a base on balls, while Young gave seven. He had one hit, two putouts and eight strikeouts to his credit.

The lineup for the game between the Youngstown and East Liverpool teams is a good one and promises a game well worth the price of admission. The teams are:

YOUNGSTOWN. Position. LIVERPOOL.
Williams.....Catcher..... Finch
Richards.....Pitcher..... Lynch
Bates.....Shortstop..... Albright
Westwood.....First base.....Hockathorne
Porter.....Second base..... Kennedy
Spatholdt.....Third base..... Carey
Meacham.....Left field.....Twaddle
Brannmiller.....Center field.....McNutt
Woodberry.....Right field..... C. Reak

The Columbus baseball club, of East End, will play the Crescents, of Wellsville, on Saturday next. The Columbus's were defeated by the empire in the last game they played with Wellsville, but will endeavor to take a club strong enough to play ten men with them Saturday.

The Crackjacks have a game booked with East Palestine. The contest will take place on the West End grounds Thursday, June 11.

The clerks' club have been challenged for a game by the Wellsville clerks for next Tuesday afternoon. The clerks are confident that they have a strong club, and will accept the challenge. The game will be played on the Wellsville grounds.

Mike Lynch sent his terms to Columbus, Georgia, last night. Cushman is the manager of the Columbus club, and has had some experience with East Liverpool people, as George Carey played ball under his management when he first went to Milwaukee.

The East Liverpool club will go to Niles on Friday and Saturday of next week. They will then have a chance to see "Nibbo" Carey play ball, as he is covering second base for the Niles team.

"Doc" Howard is playing center field and pitching for the Cuban Giants. From all accounts he is playing an excellent game for the Giants, and enjoying himself to the utmost.

The Pittsburgh Times today says: "Cy Young and Winnie Mercer are not in the 'quitter' class, as yesterday's game will show. 'Farmer' Cy has all the advantage as to weight, but the East Liverpool boy has as much grit in his make-up as 'Kid' Lavigne."

Manager Stevenson, of the Eclipse football team, yesterday closed negotiations with the Washington and Jefferson eleven for a game at Washington Oct. 29.

The Crackjacks will go to Freedom Saturday to contest with the team at that place.

A Georgetown baseball club will cross bats with the White Stars at Gardner's park, across the river, tomorrow afternoon.

I have two little grand children who are teething this hot summer weather and are troubled with bowel complaint. I give them Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy and it acts like a charm. I earnestly recommend it for children with bowel troubles. I was myself taken with a severe attack of bloody flux, with cramps and pains in my stomach, one-third of a bottle of this remedy cured me. Within twenty-four hours I was out of bed and doing my housework. Mrs. W. L. Dunagan, Bonaqua, Hickman co., Tenn. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Sangerfest Parade Day.

Thursday, June 11, special excursion tickets to Pittsburgh will be sold at one fare for the round trip from Dennison, Cadiz, New Cumberland, Wheeling, Bellaire, Alliance and intermediate ticket stations on Pennsylvania lines, good going on regular trains, valid returning until June 13, inclusive. The big Sangerfest parade takes place Thursday, June 11.

"Many of the citizens of Rainville, Indiana are never without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough remedy in the house," says Jacob Brown, the leading merchant of the place. This remedy has proven of so much value for colds, croup and whooping cough in children that few mothers who know its worth are willing to be without it. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Mr. G. A. Stillson, a merchant of Tampico, Ill., writes, August 10, 1891: "Foley's Kidney cure is meeting with wonderful success. It has cured some cases here that physicians pronounced incurable. I myself am able to testify to its merits. My face today is a living picture of health, and Foley's Kidney cure has made it such. I had suffered 27 years with the disease, and today I feel 10 years younger than I did one year ago. I can obtain some wonderful certificates of its medical qualities."

Was Only a Rumor.

A report was in circulation this morning to the effect that a great storm had devastated a number of towns and cities situated in the central part of the state last night, and that the loss of life was appalling. In view of many recent disasters by storms, some credence was given the rumor until the morning papers arrived and dispelled the illusion by containing no account of any serious storms in this vicinity.

Dead Dog Found on the Platform.

When the employees of the freight depot arrived at their work this morning they found a dead dog lying on the platform. The canine had evidently been shot or poisoned. Sanitary Police-man King officiated at the obsequies of the dead animal.

On Thursday morning, June 4, "Pension day," Capt. Myers will have the old "flag" waving a welcome to all old soldiers and soldiers' widows who desire to have their vouchers properly executed.

Sometimes when the last spark of life seems almost extinguished it is fanned into flame again by prompt, vigorous action. It is a mistake, however, to put off action too long; another mistake is to despair too easily. Both these mistakes are made in dealing with disease, particularly with consumption. It is neglected at first until someone names it. Then the name strikes terror to the mind; the nature of the disease is misunderstood. It is a blood disease, settled in the lungs. If it settled somewhere else the doctors would give it a different name:—scrofula, kidney disease or "liver complaint." But the name only tells where it settles. It is really all one disease:—Bad blood; and there is only one cure:—Good blood.

An abundance of good, rich, red, blood put into the circulation, cures every one of these complaints, consumption as well as the rest—if it hasn't gone too far. It is on this true physiological principle—fully proven by experience—that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures Consumption and all other blood diseases. It tones up the blood-making organs to produce a fresh supply of healthy, red blood; this carries new nourishment and life to the wasted lung tissue; or any other tissue that is affected. It drives out the poisonous disease germs which clog the skin, liver or kidneys. It is simply a question of purifying and building up, where there is anything left to build on the "Golden Medical Discovery" will infallibly build up and cure. It cures cases which doctors declare "incurable." That word has lost its meaning since Doctor Pierce's wonderful "Discovery."

The plain and hopeful truth about disease is shown in the light of the best science of the century in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It is a volume of 1000 pages, illustrated. It also contains letters from many who have been rescued from consumption. This great book is free, if you send a recent stamp, to cover cost of mailing only, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

DAMAGE CASE SETTLED

By the Pennsylvania Company Paying $500 and Costs.

AN INTERESTING TRIAL NOW ON

In Which a New Waterford Man Is Endeavoring to Recover a $5,000 Policy From the Mutual Life—Will Be Closely Contested—Court News.

Lisbon, June 4.—The Charles Aultz damage case against the Pennsylvania company was called for trial in court this morning and was reported settled, by the company paying the plaintiff $500 and costs. Aultz resides in Columbiana and received his injuries through carelessness of employees of the railroad on January 13, 1895. He had accompanied two ladies to a train, and, after seeing them aboard, had attempted to return to the station across one of the tracks. A freight train approached at the rate of 20 miles an hour without warning, and as a blinding snow storm was in progress, he did not notice its arrival. He was struck by the engine and had one of his hips severely crushed and bruised. The suit was brought for $1,999.

A trial of more than passing notice is occupying the attention of common pleas court this afternoon. George J. Koch, of New Waterford, is endeavoring to recover from the Mutual Life Insurance company, of New York, the sum of $5,000 which is due upon a policy on the life of Emmir Stitler, who died in the former town in December, 1894. Six months prior to Stitler's death on June 30, he took out this policy, and in a few days legally assigned it to Koch, who paid the $150 premium. At the time of taking out the policy Stitler was suffering from diseased tissues of the liver, and when his death occurred the insurance company refused to pay the amount, claiming that Koch's part of the transaction had simply been done for speculative purposes, and that Stitler, who was in his employ, had been instigated by him to take the insurance in the first place, as Koch knew that his death was but a matter of a few months at the most. The case will be closely contested.

A warrant was this morning given to Sheriff Gill to convey George Sanders, of Unity township, who was recently adjudged insane, to the asylum at Newburg.

A marriage license was issued to Frank E. Hickert and Helen Heaton, of Washingtonville.

A new departure at Cheap John's grocery, 313 Lincoln avenue—a full line of stone ware, at low prices.
